REVIEW

CONDON HIGH SCHOOL
CONDON, OREGON

Editor. Caren Pattee
Asst. editor. Lynne Potter

The Seniors were finishing last minute details for their matinee, the Juniors were in study hall anxiously awaiting the noon bell to release them, the underclassmen were in different classes around the rooms of Condon High. Then the voice of Mr. Gilman broke over the intercom...we have received word from Dallas, Texas, President Kennedy has been assassinated.

Soul shattering words that affected every Condon High student in the same way...shock, disbelief, silence and sorrow. Not one of us will ever forget that late morning announcement on November 22 nor will we forget John Fitzgerald Kennedy. He believed in the youth of America and that includes us...the students of Condon High. May we strive to live up to his ideals and fulfill his trust in us.

To John F. Kennedy and the American way of life we dedicate the 1964 "Blue Devil Review."

ADMINISTRATION

Adolph Shaffer, Chairman of the School Board, is a well known rancher.

Lovena Palmer is the County School Superintendent. She takes great interest in the activities of the school.

Bill Hardie is one of three ranchers on the board. He was a paratrooper during the war and still enjoys parachuting as a sport.

Jack Fatland was educated in Condon Schools and now is in partnership in the Fatland Service Station with his father. An outdoorsman, he enjoys hunting and fishing.

School Superintendent of School District #25 is Ferman Warnock.

Ernie Lear has been past mayor of Condon and is a well known farmer in our area.

Janie Palmer, secretary for the School Board and the Grade School.

James Burns is another past mayor of Condon and was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1960. Mr. Burns enjoys bowling, chess, and bridge.

FACULTY

DON GILMAN is Condon High's friendly principal and also teaches Chemistry and Algebra I. Monument is his home town and he has his M.S. degree from Eastern Oregon College in La Grande. Mr. Gilman likes all sports and especially enjoys fishing.

TO THE STUDENTS OF CHS

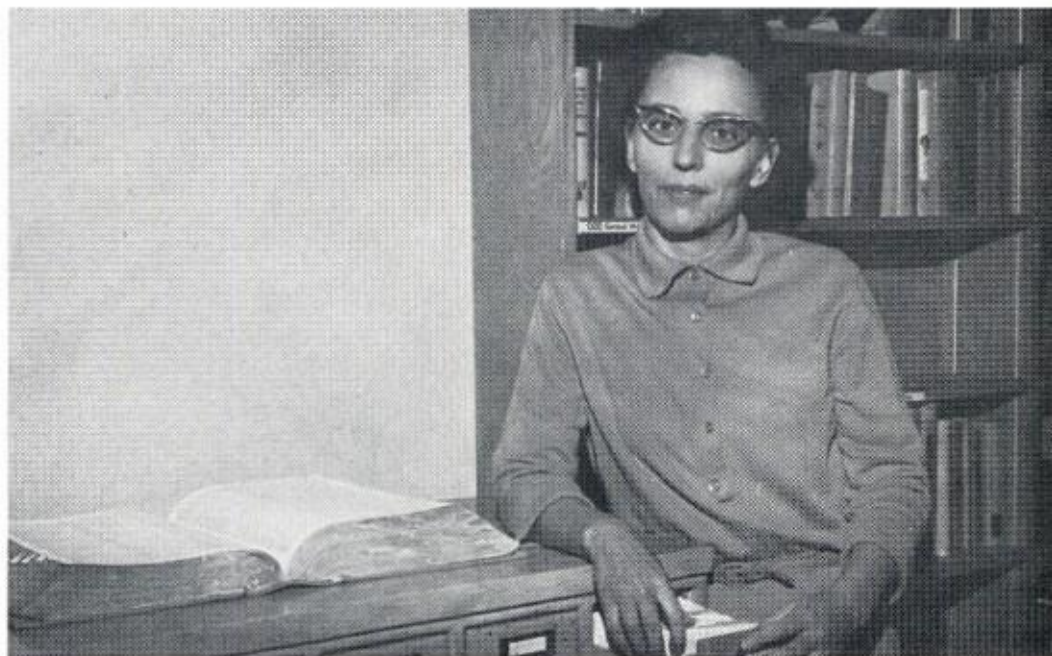

It has been my privilege to be principal of Condon High School for the past two years and a teacher prior to this. One will have to travel a long way to be associated with the caliber of student that walks the halls of Condon High.

Take a back seat to no one, for you are as well prepared, academically and socially as any other group of students. Believe in yourself and in your school, for your school is no better than what you want it to be. Each one of you needs to add your hand to the developing of the spirit of your school.

As this is the last year that I will be at Condon, I would hope each one of you would remember me as a person rather than a principal.

Goodbye.

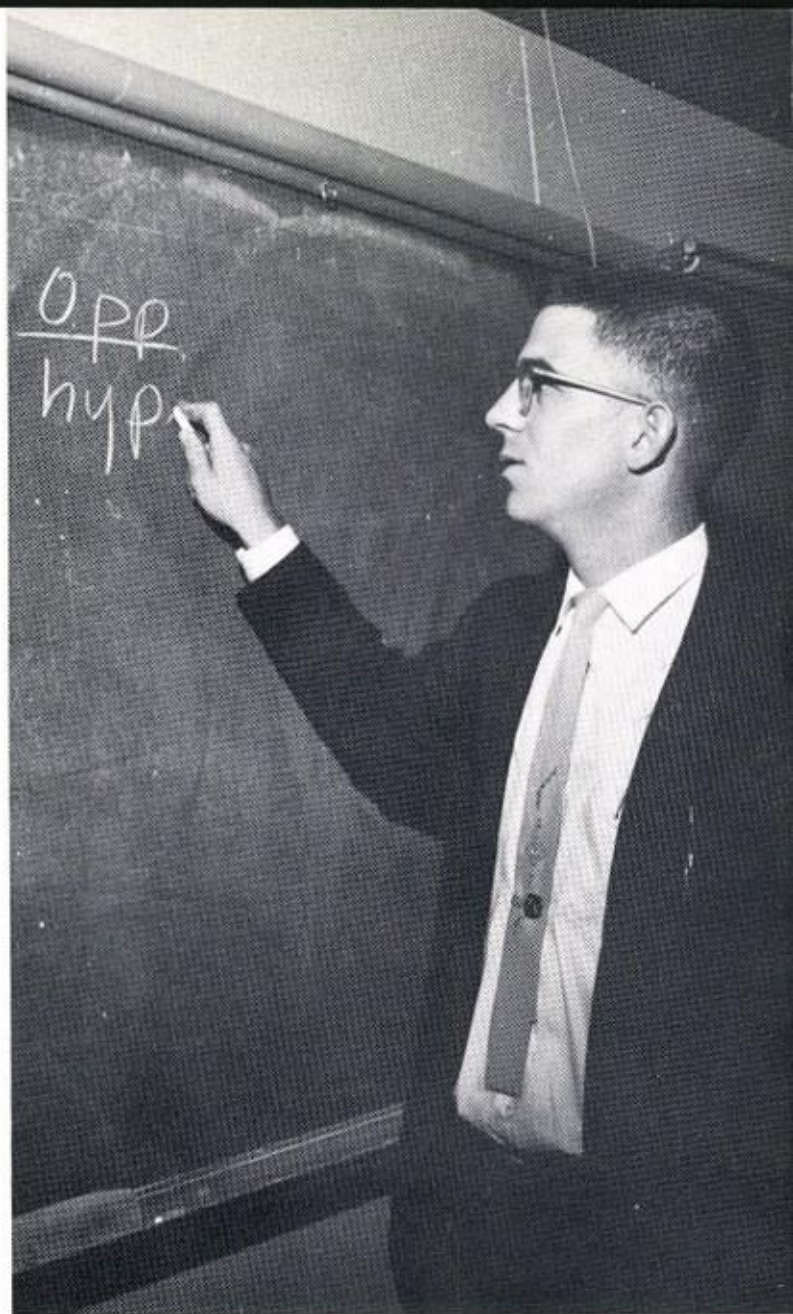

Don Gilman

JUANITA SHEARER is Dean of Girls and as Home Ec instructor, she has the chore of teaching Condon High girls to become homemakers. As school librarian, she is often found in the library doing bookwork. She also advises the spirited "Blue Devil" pep club. Mrs. Shearer, originally from St. Helens, acquired her B.S. degree from Oregon State. She enjoys preparing new recipes and trying them out on her husband and four boys.

JACK MCINTOSH is Condon High's well known math teacher. Physics, Geometry, Trig and Algebra I & II are his classroom subjects. Mr. Mac is from John Day and graduated from Eastern Oregon. During his spare time he enjoys repairing radios, TV and other electrical appliances.

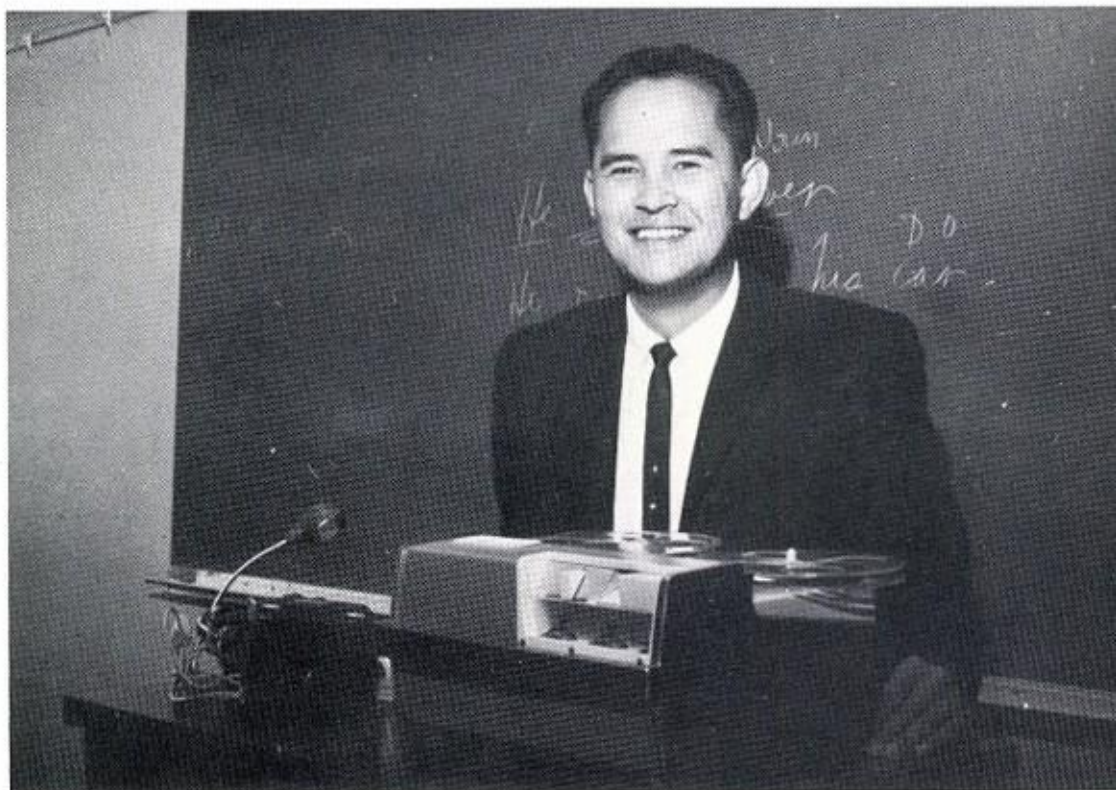

TED SCHADEWITZ is an avid sports fan and enjoys hunting and playing basketball. He coaches varsity basketball and track. American Problems, U.S. History, World History and Boys' P.E. are the subjects he teaches. Mr. Schadewitz is from San Andrea, California and graduated from Eastern Oregon College.

HARVEY NEFFENDORF is from Portland and went to Portland State. He is a sports enthusiast and enjoys hunting and fishing. He is head coach in football, baseball and handles the JV basketball squad. Mr. Neffendorf teaches Shop, Mechanical Drawing and Drivers Ed.

HARVEY BUENCONSEJO is our Spanish and English I & II teacher from Hawaii. Eastern Oregon is his alma mater and Mr. B. says teaching English is his favorite hobby. Outside of school he is often found on the tennis court.

MAURICE THORN is a new member of the teaching staff this year from South Eastern Idaho. He graduated from Idaho State University and is the Commercial teacher at CHS. He teaches Bookkeeping, Business Law, Typing I and Office Practice. Sports are his favorite pastime.

DON BAXTER comes from Seattle and graduated from Western Washington. He teaches at the grade school as well as being the band and chorus teacher at CHS. Making model railroads, oil painting and rock hunting are his favorite hobbies.

PHYLLIS LEHMAN and her red Corvair are a familiar sight around CHS. She comes from Madras and graduated from OCE at Monmouth. She teaches four classes of English and one Speech class. Her spare time is spent advising GAA, Letterettes, paper and annual staff. She also lends her talents to directing school plays.

DICK SCHNEIDER is mainly interested in biology and teaches two classes of this subject plus General Science and Math. Redmond is his hometown and he attended Oregon College. He enjoys the great outdoors and hunting, fishing and biology are his favorite hobbies.

REIBA CARTER joined the staff this year to teach Girls' P.E. and advise Condon's precision drill squad. She is also a sixth grade teacher at CGS. Miss Carter hails from Long Creek and is one of the five Condon High teachers who call Eastern Oregon College their Alma Mater. She enjoys doing anything creative and is known for her delicious cookies.

Mrs. Charles Greenfield, Mrs. Eb McKinney and Davina Stewart are the three expert cooks at the grade school cafeteria. Many CHS students enjoy their delicious food at noon.

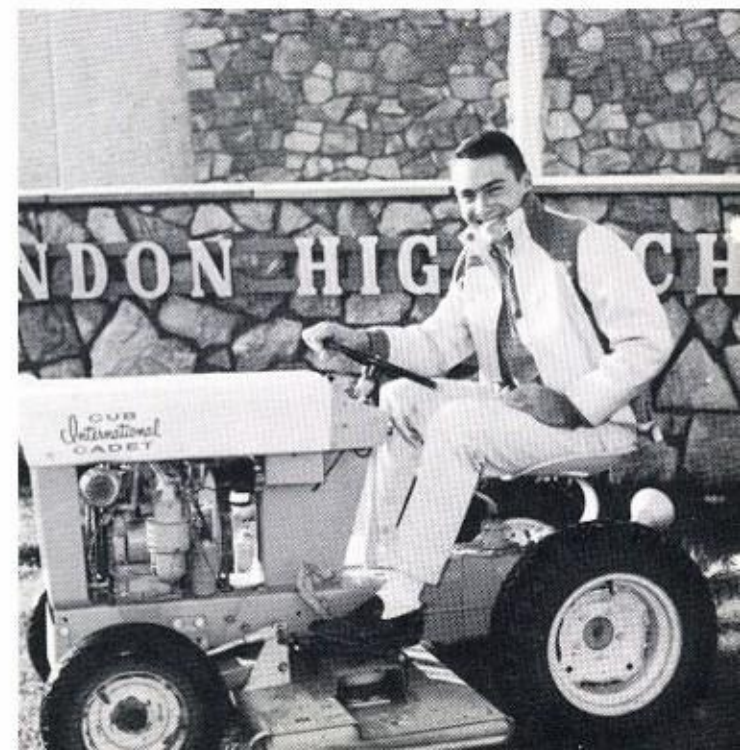

Office secretary, Jean Jackson, is one of the busiest persons at CHS. Writing tardy slips is one of her hobbies and she is never too busy to give students her assistance. When in doubt, just ask Jean!

Tex Wilkins is kept busy working at the grade school as well as helping Mike at the high school.

What's this? The Juniors actually studying? No, really they are just trying to conceal their gum from Mr. Schadewitz....an impossible feat. Gum or no gum, U.S. History will not soon be forgotten, huh, Juniors?

That's right; Mr. Buenconsejo wants to make sure everything is in perfect order before he TRIES to transmit any Spanish into ANY of the Sophomores' heads.

Don't look so glum Mr. Schneider, the Freshmen are really energetic. They may not be very smart, but from the looks on their faces, they could puzzle anybody.

You can always tell when all the Sophomores are busily working... none of them are taking time to smile for a picture.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT BODY

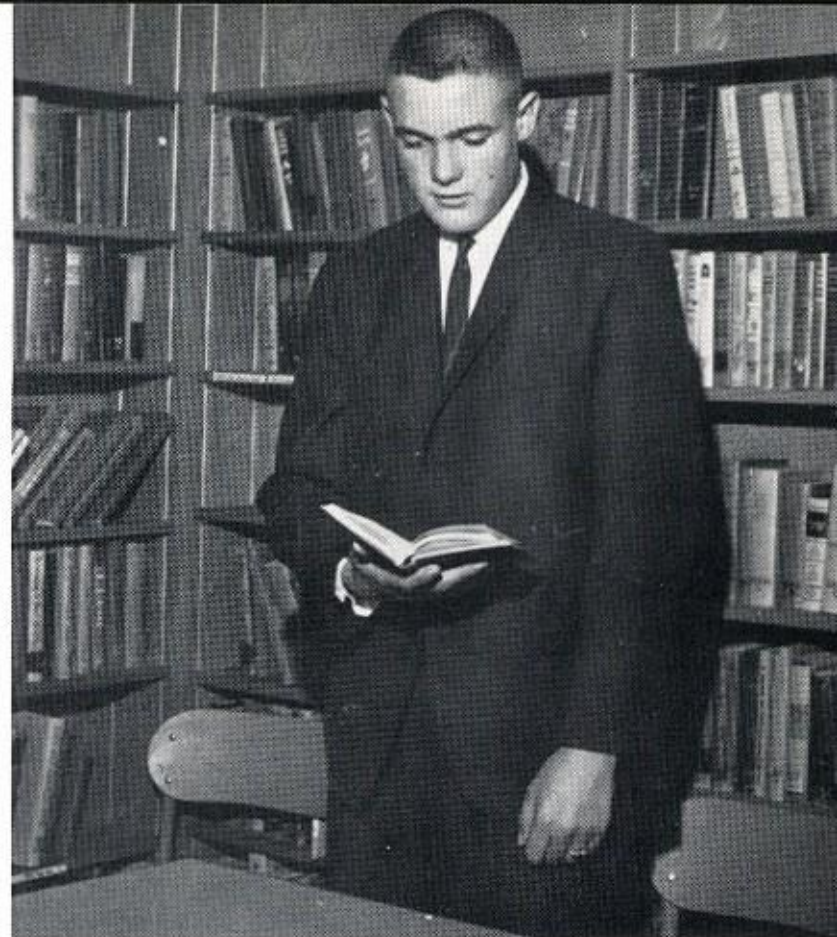

DOUG WILSON

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the students of Condon High School for the cooperation that they have given me in the 1963-1964 school year. I believe that this year more has been accomplished in the school than in any of the previous four years. Once again I would like to thank everyone for helping make this a very successful year for Condon High School students.

This year in Student Council much was accomplished. The Constitution which was out of date was revised and the Lettermen's club Constitution was also revised to allow the reinstatement of the club. The Student Council took over concessions and added a Business Manager to its list of members. This year the Student Council introduced a Coat of Arms to the students of Condon High School.

The 1964 yearbook staff started its year with an empty room, a pile of layout pages, and a long hard road of work before the 1964 Blue Devil Review was to be presented to the student body as a finished product.

Many hours during school time and even "burning the midnight oil" helped the staff to meet deadlines that were due. Photographers worked their hardest taking many pictures so that each event wouldn't be missed, and the advertising staff frantically toured the countryside on a mission to acquire enough advertising to cover the cost of the yearbook.

With all this work in the staff, they endeavored to write up the timely events that were captured by the pictures, and the whole staff worked to unite the publication into a story of the Blue Devil Review.

G A A

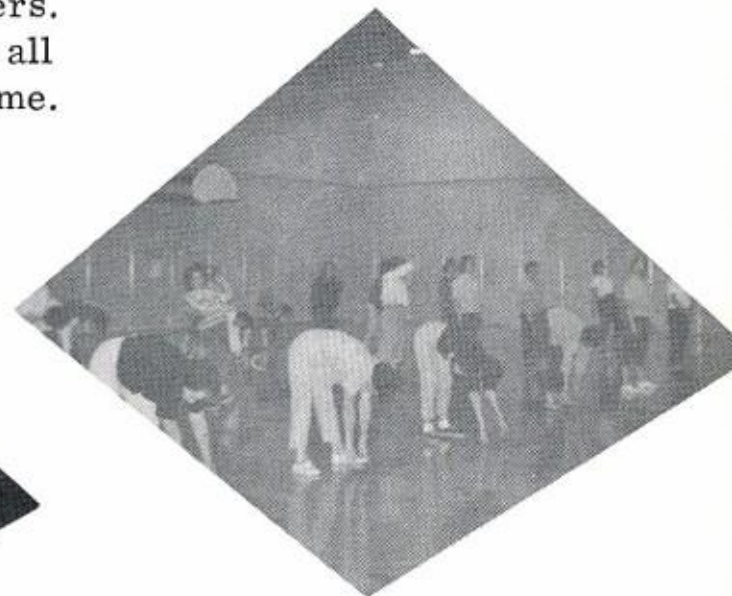

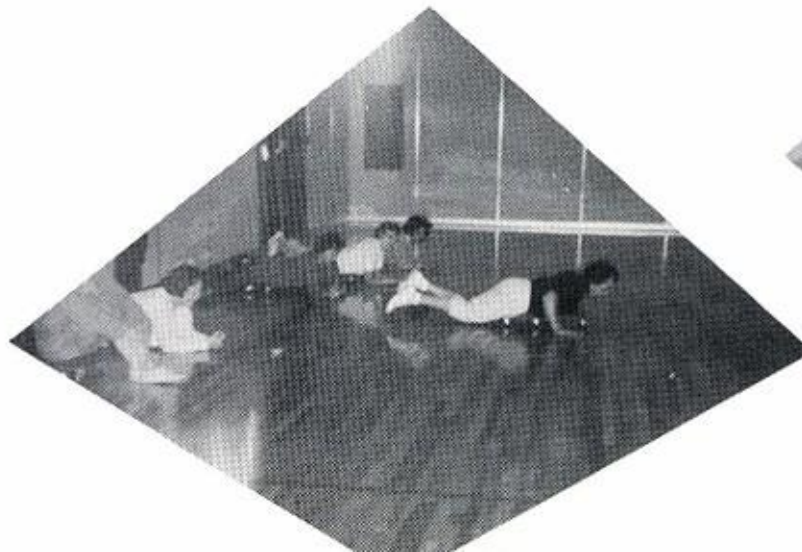

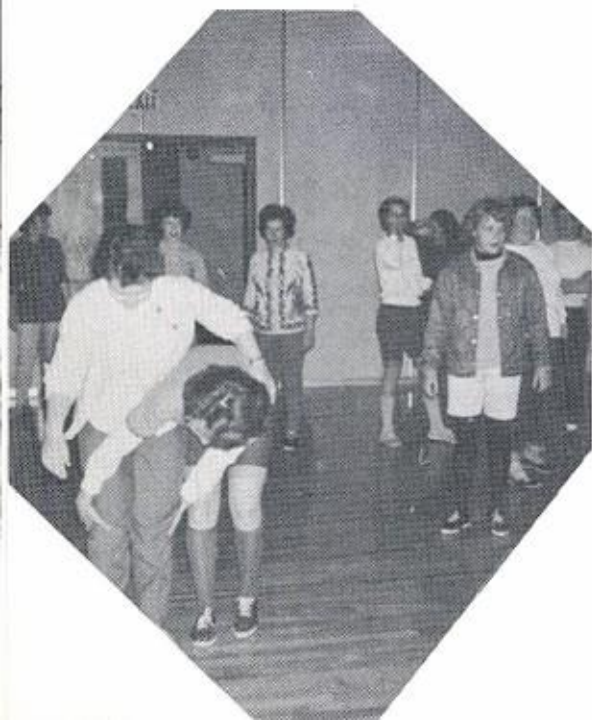

The cold spring weather didn't stop the GAA girls from enjoying softball. The climax of the season came as they battled the boys in a game. The girls tried their hardest but alas, they were defeated by the slight margin of 35 to 17.

ACTIVITIES

Mom's Night is an annual event looked forward to by all GAA girls and their mothers. A new tradition was started this year as all the Senior boys' moms were asked to come.

Previously, Letterettes has been a club for all girls who have earned a letter at C.H.S. However, this year the constitution was revised in an effort to make it a more active organization. Thus, girls must earn a letter each year in addition to 5 Letterette points. Or just 10 Letterette points. It is the goal of this club to become a service organization at C.H.S. ---One that girls can be proud to be a member of, as they will have worked for the honor.

Initiation is one of the highlights of the year. If the girls can pass the initiation ceremonies it is thought that they will be an asset to the organization.

TEAM

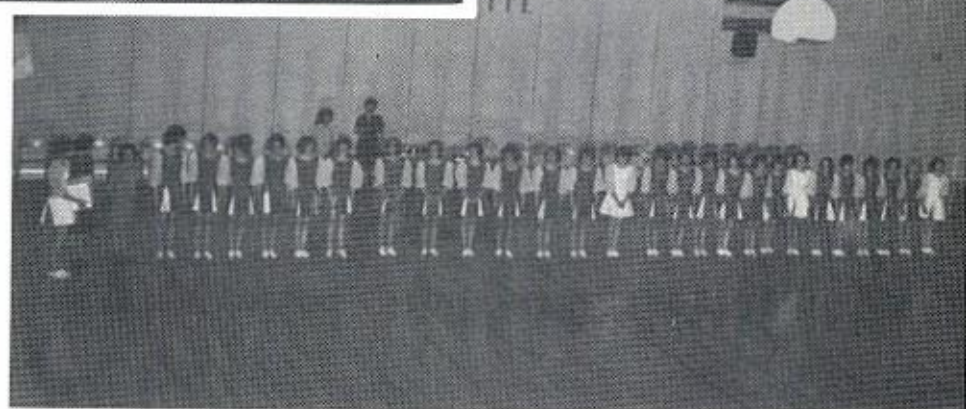

Miss Carter, drill team advisor, sits at the table watching the girls perform.

Besides drilling at the half of home basketball games, the CHS Drill Team performed at the Christmas Tournament sponsored by Condon.

The climax of the year was at the District 6-B Basketball Tournament where they donned their new uniforms and drilled two evenings.

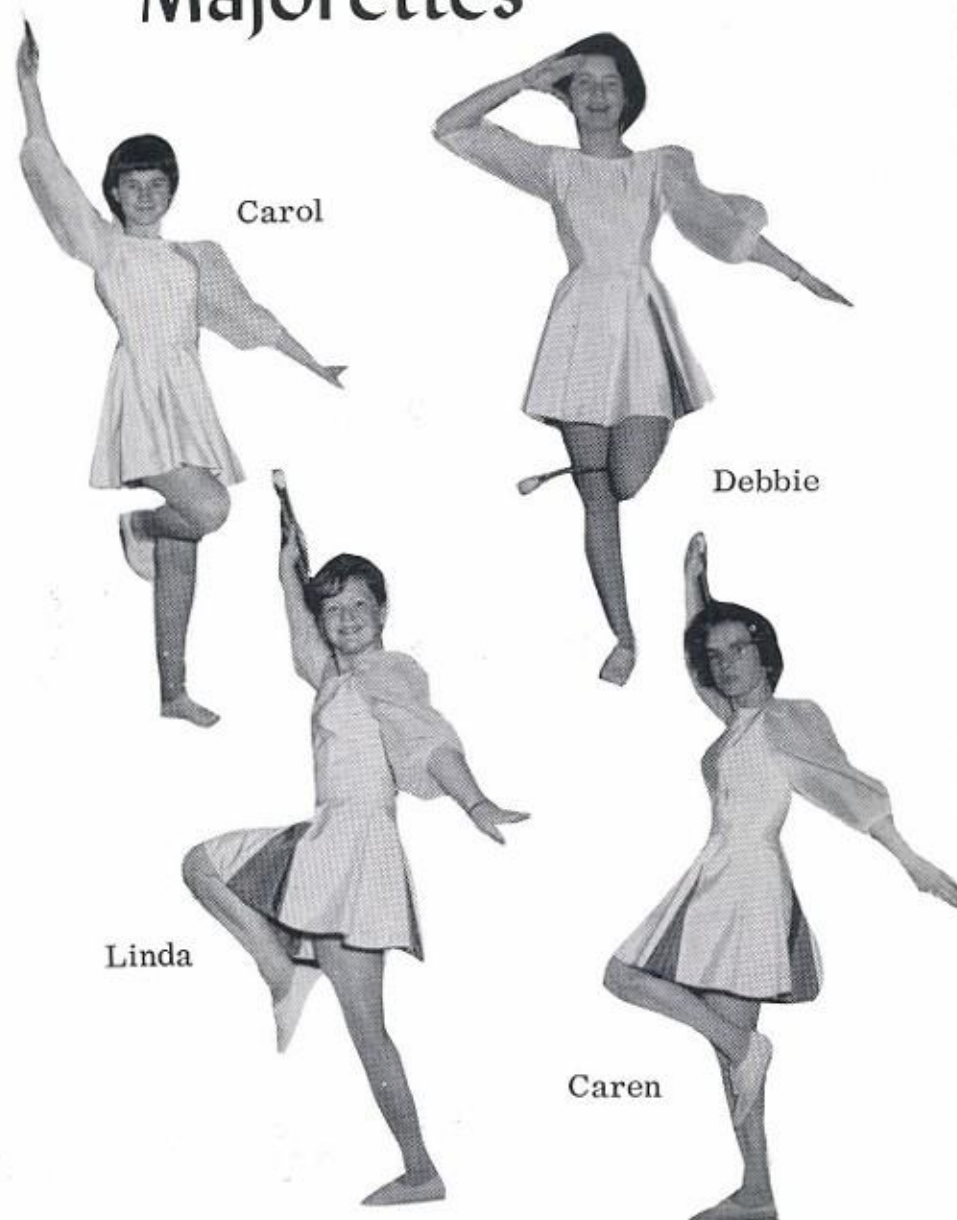

The uniforms, designed by the girls, added to a successful season.

Head-Majorette Lynne Potter

Majorettes

With only one experienced twirler, the CHS majorettes bravely began practicing for the Christmas Tournament. This performance and the eight following showed the results of long, but fun-filled practice sessions.

The audience never knew what to expect from one half time to another, as the girls varied their music and motions.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

The Class of '67" entered Condon High School with thirty-nine members and began high school life by going through initiation. The Sophomores decided on the character each Freshman would portray and on September 20th, a strange array of foolish looking Freshmen walked down the halls of CHS. They carried the upper classmen's books and entertained Seniors by pushing peanuts down the corridor. During a special assembly, each Frosh introduced himself.

That evening, the Freshmen were welcomed into the social life with the Frosh dance. The purpose of initiation is to make the Freshmen feel a part of the Student Body and certainly, this year's class has become an important part of CHS.

HOMECOMING

Crash! Bang! Enthusiasm, pep and school spirit...this was Homecoming, 1963. On the eve of the big game the "rally" was held. The evenings activities started with the noise parade led by the cheerleaders. Following them down main street were the Homecoming Royalty, pep band and a noise float from each class.

The Juniors proved themselves to be the noisiest class in school by winning first on their float. The parade ended at the football field where the Freshmen had made a "C" on the hill. After a pep talk from Coach Neffendorf and cheers for the team, a car rally was held around town. The night ended with a party at the house of Homecoming Queen, Jackie Snell.

Queen Jackie, the First, reigned over the 1963 Homecoming festivities at Condon High. Jackie, a new student this year from Germany, was voted queen during an all school election. Princesses in her court were:

Nancy Pettyjohn, Senior
Lynne Potter, Junior
Deanna Riney, Sophomore
Robin Teslow, Freshman

The Court rode in the noise parade and were presented during the half at Friday's game. Last year's Queen, Jean Ann Grabenhorst, introduced Queen Jackie Snell and presented her with red roses. Jackie welcomed the alumni and commended the team on their fighting spirit.

Though the team did go down to defeat to the Maupin Redsides, the Homecoming weekend was an unforgettable success. Friday night at the dance, the "Wee Threes" provided live music. The Homecoming Royalty was introduced at intermission.

Student body president, Doug Wilson crowned Jackie, Queen of the dance and Homecoming. Each of the princesses was presented a bouquet of mums.

So came to a close, Homecoming for 1963.

SADIE

On November 14th, the Junior Class held the annual Sadie Hawkin's Day. Because of bad weather the race was held in the gym instead of outside (much to the girls' advantage and the boys' dismay). The sound of Mr. Neffendorf's revolver started the race and sent the eager girls after the guys. The boys were doomed from the start as the girls proceeded to catch them...one by one.

The fellows really couldn't complain as they were taken to dinner by their unlawfully wedded wives. Afterwards, the dance at the high school proved to be one of the most stompin', carefree and fun-filled events of the year. Junior class president, Jim Burres, crowned Leonard Flint, King of Dogpatch and Gloria Brownhill was chosen Queen.

"Oh, come on," Louie told Lank as he appeared in another disguise to keep Lank from finding and 'getting rid of' newly elected Sheriff Louie.

The Senior Clan displayed talent, spirit, and cooperation in presenting a 3 act comedy "Girl Crazy."

OLD FASHIONED CHRISTMAS

Presentation of king and court.

The king's dance.

Just who is dancing with whom?

Sweetheart Swirl

The students of CHS celebrated Valentine's Day this year by attending the Sweetheart's Swirl in the Old Gym sponsored by the Gamma Upsilon Sorority. Each class elected a boy and girl to represent their class as sweethearts. The Junior couple received the most penny votes and so Steven Palmer reigned as King and Linda Philbrick as Queen.

Where are the dancers? Well, they just haven't began dancing yet. It wasn't long though, until the music of "We Three + One" lured couples out onto the floor to enjoy an evening full of dancing.

"Onions in the Stew," the 1964 All-School Play was a delightful and different comedy filled with humor and uproarious incidents. Betty and Don MacDonald came to Vashon Island in Puget Sound to begin a new life. However, Anne and Joan, their two teenaged daughters preferred the city life to life on an island. But they did entertain many of their friends such as Claud ("a colorless, rather forlorn young fellow") who was Joan's boyfriend. Finally, after many mishaps, especially with the plumbing which even New Motor Marvin couldn't repair, Betty MacDonald decided to sell. It was only after Miss Garvey (the welfare worker with sensible shoes and a raspy voice) came to buy the house that all of the MacDonalds realized their true feelings toward their island home... "Where hearts were high and fortunes low-- and onions in the stew."

Prom Preparation

Monday, April 20, the day the Juniors began decorating for their prom. First the ceiling went up and it was work, work, work!

Watch the wet paint! As the industrious boys pool their efforts to complete the bridge and railing.

The class secured help from three of Condon's talented artists to paint the mural across the end wall. Mr. B., class advisor, is probably wondering how such a seemingly disorganized class could work together so well to create the breathtaking splendor of "Moon River."

Time out for a gab session as the band stand is given a pleated border, sharp!

"All we do is pin, pin, pin!" The whole prom was held up by PINS.

The strain of late hours and hard work begins to show.

Junior - Senior Banquet

The 1964 Jr. -Sr. banquet began as Student Body Chaplain, David Magee, gave the invocation. Class President, Rob Myers, welcomed the Seniors and other honored guests.

Following dinner, Mr. Ernest Fatland spoke on "Jumping to Conclusions." After his interesting talk, the Senior Class Will was read. Mr. Gilman then reminisced about each of the Seniors. The banquet completed, it was time for the long-awaited prom!

Caught sampling the food were the Sophomore boys who served the delicious roast turkey, that Mr. DiVivo prepared.

Junior - Senior Prom

Class President Rob Myers crowns NANCY PETTYJOHN Queen of the Prom!

In the Old Gym on April 25, the Junior Class revealed their artistic accomplishments in creating the 1964 Prom, "Moon River." The setting was a River Boat's ballroom which glistened with gold walls and azure blue ceiling. Rotating lights accented the chandelier in the middle of the room.

The bridge across "Moon River" led from the ballroom to the shore line. Under the star-covered sky were the tables and a mural which gave the setting awe-inspiring beauty. As the Barney Powell Orchestra played the strains of the last song, everyone agreed the serene beauty and atmosphere of "Moon River" would not soon be forgotten. Well done, Juniors!

JV BASKETBALL

Under the coaching of Harvey Neffendorf the Baby Blue Devils chalked up victory after victory throughout the basketball season.

Their 16 wins overshadowed the one loss, as the JV's developed the skill and precision that will enable them to fight for varsity berths next year.

Freshman Basketball Team

A lot of work and little reward was the story of the Freshman Basketball team this year. Although this group of boys including Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors practiced hard, they went through the season without scoring a victory. However, much experience was gained and the boys enjoyed the competition with teams from other schools.

"DISTRICT CHAMPS"

Coach Ted Schadewitz's Thinclads were District Champions for the second year in a row. This is a rather remarkable feat as CHS has no track field. However, the lack of a track was made up for in widespread enthusiasm and desire among team members.

CONDON HIGH SCHOOL

I just saw a Fossil boy

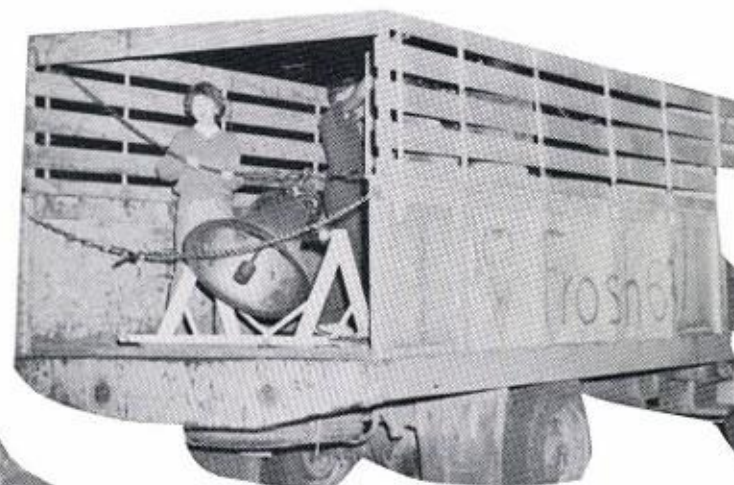

Easy, Cheryl, don't split the ends!

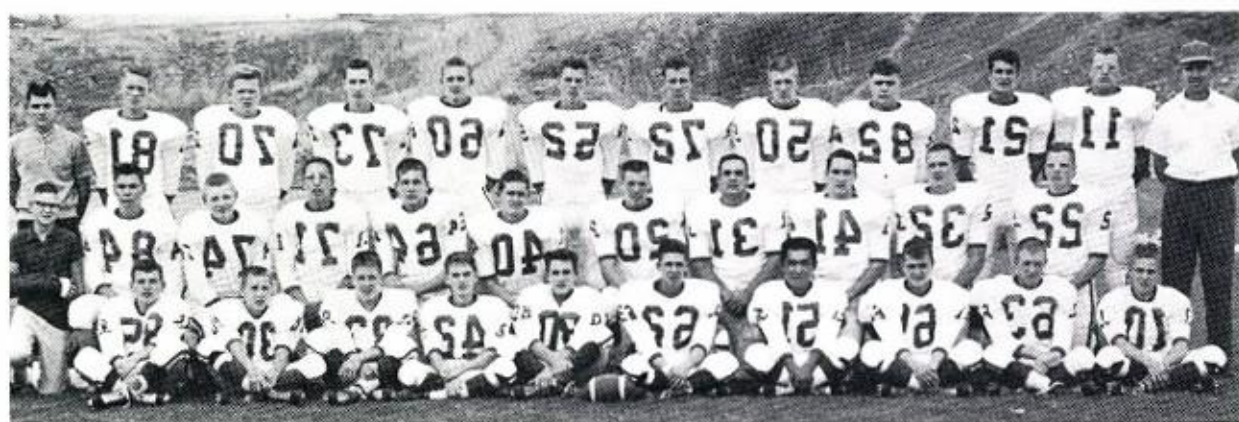

What's next,
huh, George?

It's gettin' to me, man

Oh where, oh where,
did the Frosh bell go

It's been a L-O-N-G season

Uh, say, Louis, wrong season!!!

Shake it up, Doug

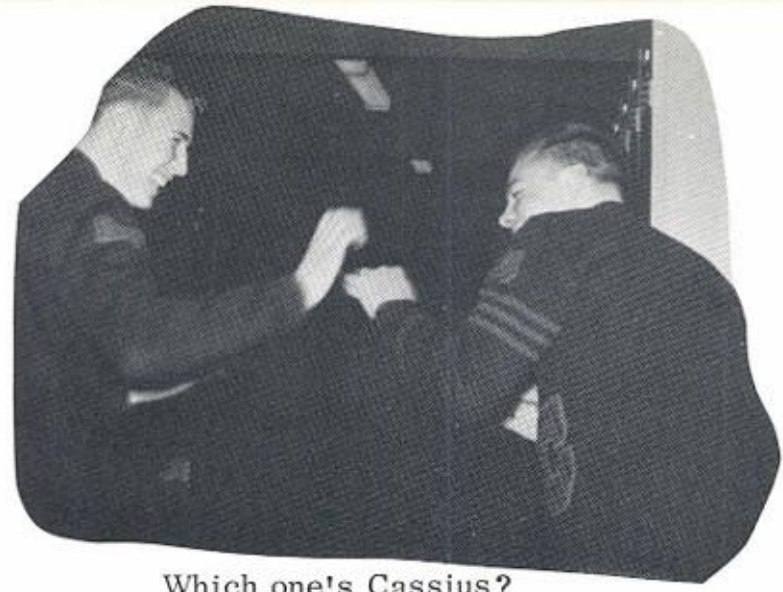

This royalty jazz is a blast

CONDON

Who took my mistletoe? Tell me.

Heads up, Willie!

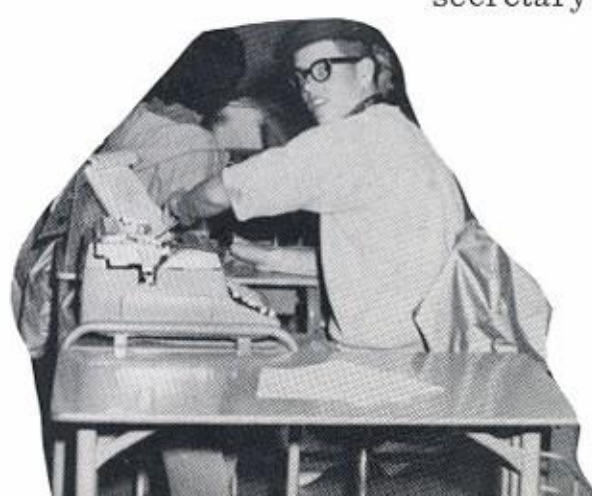

Sing, Joe
Where's your pep?

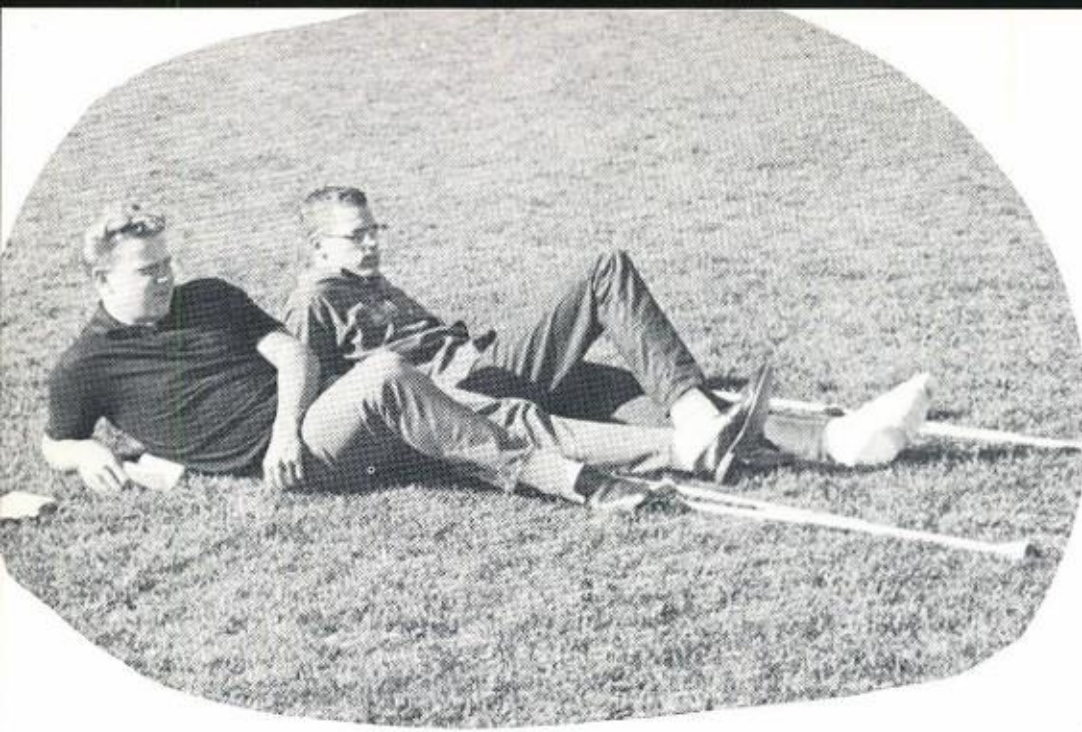

That means the team, Seniors

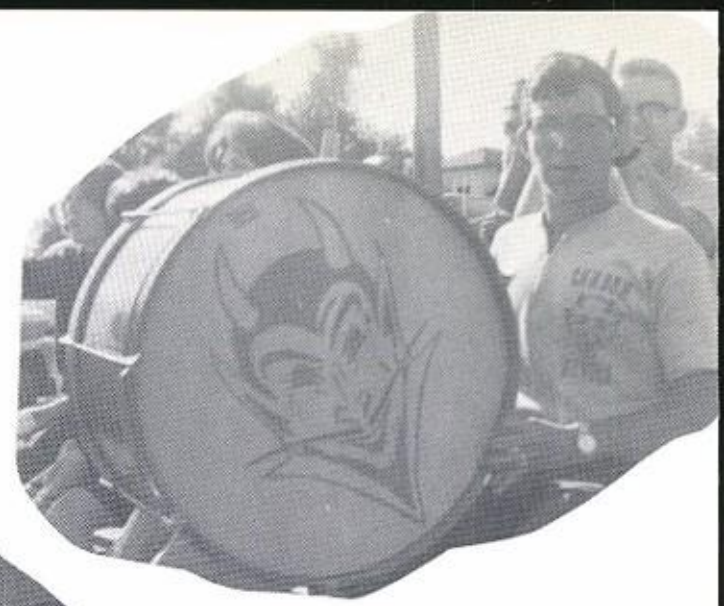

I'm neat--just ask me

Sure I want to be a secretary
